FINAL TENNIS SET TO BE PLAYED TODAY

A. L. Castle and William Eklund will meet Alan Lowrey and Billy Hoogs at the Hawaii Polo and Racing Club courts this afternoon at 4:30 in the final set of the men's doubles. On Sunday the four players fought for four sets without a decision and the final set, which will give the winners the cup, should prove to be an interesting match. Since the sparkling play on Sunday neither team has been picked as a favorite and it would not be at all surprising to see the match go to more than a dozen games.
